Privacy Policy

Introduction
FaithActs for Education (referred to as "Organization", "we", "our" in this Privacy Policy) is a nonprofit organization based in Connecticut whose mission is to achieve social justice in education.

This Privacy Notice describes the Organization’s policies and practices regarding its collection and use of your personal data. We recognize that information privacy is an ongoing responsibility, and so we will from time to time update this Privacy Notice.

How we collect and use (process) your personal information
The Organization collects personal information about its website visitors, volunteers, interested parties and other stakeholders. We may collect this through webforms, paper forms, and other intake processes. This information may include, but is not limited to: first name, last name, address, email address, voting address, demographic information, phone number, date of birth, voter registration information and religious affiliation. We use this information to engage voters and stakeholders in education, event notification, update notification and other outreach services. We do not collect or store credit card information; we use a third party that provides this service and their privacy policy governs the collection of that information. We do not knowingly attempt to solicit or receive information from children.

When and how we share information with others
We do not sell personal information to anyone and only share it with third parties who are facilitating the delivery of the Organization’s services. Our organization maintains strict privacy policies to protect the personal information of our users obtained for text message communications. This information is never sold, rented, released, or traded to others without prior consent or legal obligation. Any sharing of information with third parties is solely for the purpose of fulfilling the organization's obligations to the user. We guarantee that it will never be shared with third parties for marketing purposes.

This Service is used to send you notifications about FaithActs programming/events and upcoming civic engagement opportunities (e.g. election day reminders and information). We will only share your phone number with our SMS provider, subject to their privacy policy. We use Bonterra/EveryAction and ThruText to send SMS communications only to users who have opted in.
Use of Our Website and Cookies
As is true of most other websites, the Organization’s website collects certain information automatically and stores it in log files. When someone visits this site, standard internet log information and details of visitor behavior patterns are collected. The information may include internet protocol (IP) addresses, the region or general location where your computer or device is accessing the internet, browser type, operating system and other usage information about the use of the Organization’s website, including a history of the pages you view. We use this information to help us design our site to better suit our users’ needs. We may also use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our website, analyze trends, track visitor movements, and gather broad demographic information that assists us in identifying visitor preferences.

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. Most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings.

Third party cookies, such as Google Analytics and other third-party cookies may be used on this site. These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use this site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors come to the site from, browsing patterns on this site, and the pages they visited. These cookies may also be used to target content.

Please note that the Organization is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of non-Organization websites to which this site may link.

Security of your information
The personal information the Organization collects from you is stored in one or more systems on our premises located in the United States. To help protect the privacy of data and personally identifiable information you transmit through use of this Site, we maintain physical, technical and administrative safeguards. We restrict access to your personal data to those employees who need to know that information to carry out our services.

Text Message Opt-Out
If you are receiving text messages from us and wish to stop receiving them, simply respond with either STOP, UNSUBSCRIBE, CANCEL, or QUIT to the number from which you received the message. Please note that the opt-out process may take up to 72 hours to become effective. During this time, you may still receive some messages from us.
